

Room Booking – Regulations

Student societies and individual students are able to book some rooms around campus. There are important rules and regulations regarding student use of these rooms, including alcohol and health and safety regulations.

To book a room, please read the information below and submit the online room bookings form. You will also need to submit a risk assessment form by emailing this to the Union House Reception at union.info@uea.ac.uk alongside the form. Only when both of these have been submitted can we go ahead with booking you a room.

Please ensure Room Booking Regulations have been read and understood at time of booking.

The Club/Society or Peer Support Group listed below are responsible for all cleaning/damage/noise costs for the timeframe of room booked.

For simple events such as meetings we require 72hrs notice (excluding weekends). For events with external speakers or larger events we require a minimum of 4 weeks notice.

Once you have read through all these necessary documents, use the online booking form on the website.

By signing this form, you agree that your booking details may be shared with third parties where necessary - this may include the Student Union, the Multifaith Centre, Cleaning Services, Dean of Students, Estates, UEA Risk Management and Security.

Students are only allowed to book Common Room Constable Terrace from 1700-2300 on weekdays and Congregation Hall/CD Annex rooms from 1900-2300 on weekdays – teaching takes priority before these hours. At weekends the hours are 0900-2300.

If a Club/Society or Peer Support Group has stipulated a good reason for wishing to book outside of these hours, Nigel Shed and Security must be consulted and agree to the booking being made before confirmation is given. Any other rooms must be for a special reason and only after permission from Nigel Shed and Security. Students can also book rooms in Union House.

As a student group in order to show films, the studio needs to be covered by our PSL License. The list currently covered under our licence are include Warner Bros, Sony Pictures, 20th Century Fox, Disney, Entertainment Film, Arrow Films, Icon Film, Pathé, StudioCanal, Eros International, Kaleidoscope Film Distribution, Miramax, Paramount Pictures and Universal Pictures (inc. DreamWorks Animation).
